Requirements:

- A quotation is valid for 2 months
- Half of the agreed amount is paid at the start of the project
- The other half is paid when the website goes online, or (at the latest) 3 months after the start of the project
- The price that is agreed depends on what the order looks like at that moment. If during the process it appears that additional work is required, this will be discussed in advance
- The client delivers all content (text and images). Except if it has been agreed (in advance or during the process) that Pink Sun will take care of this.
- Invoices should be paid within 14 days
- Pink Sun will add the text once. If any alterations need to be done, client can do so him/herself or pay Pink Sun to do the extra work
- Pink Sun likes to show your website in the portfolio. Please let us know if you rather not have this.
- Pink Sun places a link in the footer. This is the way we get our costumers. If you don't like this, we won't do this.

Ownership:

- Pink Sun will handle all sensitive information with care. We will not share with another party without you being asked explicitly and in person..
- Copyright of your text and your images will be handled carefully
- Pink Sun is the owner of the website and/or the graphic work until the final invoice has been paid.
After full payment, all material and copyright belongs to you.
- So if you wish to pick up your website and take it to another company, you're free to do so.
